

SCOTLAND

BEST OF THE HIGHLAND RIVERS

CASTLE KILCHURN

~ INN TO INN RIVER TOURING ~ SEPTEMBER 7-14, 2008

A Sunrise exclusive ... The Highlands of Scotland, though lightly settled, still offer many stretches of semi-wild, spectacular waterways- offering perspectives of a rich cultural heritage from a riverine viewpoint. The romantic beauty of the Scottish Highlands is experienced via mild whitewater rivers, such as the Spey, Orchy, and Tay, passing the Cairngorm Mountains, and travelling through Glencoe and majestic, historic Loch Ness and Awe. Inn to inn river touring with accommodations in some of the region's finest hotels and classic Highland inns. Trip features riverside visits to Castle Kilchurn; and some of the Highland's renowned single malt whiskey distilleries. Other highlights include paddling to the sea, paddling across the remote Rannoch Moor, and the opportunity to enjoy several of the Highland's most picturesque small towns and villages. Trip is organized in association with Scotland's leading canoe instruction and guide outfits. Includes 8 hotel nights in the Highlands, plus the final evening's hotel in historic Edinburgh.
